CONSERVATORY ANNOUNCES MOVE OF FAVORITE HOLIDAY CONCERT TO TURNER HALL

Festive Soiree with Robin Plier & Friends will be one night only on December 8, 2011.

Milwaukee, WI – July 28, 2011 – The Wisconsin Conservatory of Music is pleased to announce that its very popular holiday concert, Festive Soiree with Robin Plier & Friends, will be held at Historic Turner Hall Ballroom for the first time ever and for one night only on Thursday, December 8, 2011, at 7:30pm.

The Conservatory has been presenting Festive Soiree in its own acoustically superb and intimate Helen Bader Recital Hall at its Prospect location for many years. The concert's popularity has grown with each holiday season, completely selling out three consecutive nights last year.

Festive Soiree features Milwaukee's own chanteuse extraordinaire, Robin Plier, who is joined on stage by a cadre of exceptional artists, including Juli Wood, tenor saxophone; Connie Grauer, piano and vocals; Kim Zick, drums; and other special guests.

The more generous size of Turner Hall Ballroom, located at 1032 N. 4th Street in Milwaukee, will allow a larger audience to experience this unique holiday show, filled with vintage French ballads, Edith Piaf classics and cabaret tunes. Festive Soiree is sponsored by WMSE 91.7 FM and Captain Install, Inc.

Tickets go on sale Friday, July 29, at 12 Noon. To purchase tickets, please call the Pabst/Riverside/Turner Hall box office at 414/286-3663 or order online at www.pabsttheater.org. Tickets may also be purchased at the Pabst or Riverside Theaters Monday-Friday, 12:00pm-6:30pm.

The Wisconsin Conservatory of Music is the oldest and largest non-profit independent music school in Wisconsin. As a true community school, the Conservatory provides the finest musical education and performance opportunities for every stage of life, and presents a full line-up of faculty and guest artist concerts and special events each season.
